The Treaty of Washington.

Sir John A. Macdonald signed the Treaty of Washington in his capacity of British Commissioner. That portion of the Treaty relating to Fisheries and Navigation must obtain the sanction of the Dominion Parliament before it can have any force or effect. But the refusal of Canada to sanction that portion of it does not in any way interfere with or invalidate the other parts; so that the consequences of her refusal would be strictly confined to the matter referred to her. This will aid the reader in understanding the position occupied by the Canadian Government with respect to the Treaty. That portion which directly concerns Canada will be submitted for her adoption or rejection. Should she adopt it the whole Treaty would come in force. Should she reject it, which would at present appear to be the more probable contingency, the Cabinet will be in no way compromised. Sir John A. Macdonald and his colleagues are perfectly free to vote against it in Parliament. It is not at all improbable that certain inducements will be held out to Canada by the Imperial Government in order to have the matter settled. Most likely the inducement will take the form of a money guarantee to build the Canadian Pacific Railway, so as to lift the burden of that work entirely off Canada, and probably a large emigration scheme by which the surplus population of the old Empire would be transferred to the new may be connected therewith. Should some such considerations as these be presented, it would, of course, become the duty of the Dominion Parliament to carefully consider the whole question; and in doing so the fact would not be overlooked that the disposition of the Fishery and Navigation questions is not perpetual, but only for twelve years. Suppose Canada should see her way clear to yield to the gentle and seductive influences referred to, it would, of course, be perfectly competent for her to terminate the Treaty at the expiration of the twelve years, should she see reason to do so; and with so great an impetus as the speedy construction of the railway, without involving any fresh financial burden, and with the great tide of British population rolling up through the North West, Canada would, at the termination of that period, find herself in a very much more advantageous position to treat with the United States for a further arrangement of these questions, either upon a broad basis of reciprocity between the two countries, or in any other way that might appear desirable. Nor does there seem to be good ground for apprehending that the refusal of Canada to agree to that part of the Treaty now referred to her would arouse renewed indignation and bluster on the part of the United States, and render the relations between the two countries more unsatisfactory and threatening than they have been in the past. It must be kept in view that the United States has been a deliberate consenting party to the reference of these points to Canada, thereby more clearly admitting the undoubted right of Canada to withhold her assent; so that the proper exercise of that right on the part of Canada could not well become the subject of complaint, much less of a fresh grievance on the part of one of the high contracting powers. The San Juan dispute and the Alabama claims settled, it does not appear to us that even should the Fishery and Navigation questions be left open, the United States would have anything like a grievance on hand. There would at least be reason to hope that an equally peaceful and civilized solution would await these questions. As a portion of the new empire we should regret to see so estimable a national inheritance as the Canadian fisheries bartered away without some substantial equivalent; and it does not, perhaps, materially concern us whether that equivalence comes from this side of the Atlantic or from the other side. If the parent Empire has reasons satisfactory to herself for being willing to provide an equivalent which we incline to think ought to have come from another source, probably Canada will not conceive it to be her duty to quarrel about that. We confess that we should rejoice to see the whole matter amicably settled upon a basis which would be fair and just alike to the United States and to Canada, and we earnestly trust that some such settlement may be reached.

SUMMER GOODS.—A B Gray has received a large assortment of goods suitable for the present season, comprising Muslins, Prints, Holland, Bifurcans, Alpacas, Lace, Barege and Wool Shawls, Silk, Cloth and Holland Jackets, Flowers, Silk and Cambric Suspender, Linens, Cotton, Hosiery, Ribbons, Laces, &c., &c., Government Street, May, 1871.

A. GILMORE, MERCHANT TAILOR, and General Outfitter, has removed the place of business to the store adjoining the Colonial Hotel and opposite the Colonist Office, on Government Street, front door from Yates, where he proposes to give his old friends and new customers a chance on the principle of quick sale and small profit.

NEWS! NEWS!

The "British Colonist" is the only newspaper published at Victoria that receives the latest Telegraphic Dispatches, as a comparison will prove. Late Telegrams appearing in any other paper are copied without credit 24 hours after they have appeared in the British Colonist. The circulation of the British Colonist being greater than that of any other paper, it offers the best medium to Advertisers.

Address of the Privy Council.

At the Court at Windsor, the 16th day of May, 1871. Present.—The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, His Royal Highness Prince Arthur, Lord Privy Seal, Earl Cowper, Earl of Kimberley, Lord Chamberlain, Mr Secretary Cardwell, Mr Ayrton.

Whereas by the British North America Act, 1867, provision was made for the Union of the Provinces of Canada, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick into the Dominion of Canada, and it was (amongst other things) enacted that it should be lawful for the Queen, by and with the advice of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, on Addresses from the Houses of the Parliament of Canada, and of the Legislature of the Colony of British Columbia, to admit that Colony into the said Union on such terms and conditions as should be in the Addresses expressed, and as the Queen should think fit to approve, subject to the provisions of this Act. And it was further enacted that the provisions of any Order in Council in that behalf should have effect as if they had been enacted by the Parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

And whereas by Addresses from the Houses of the Parliament of Canada and from the Legislative Council of British Columbia respectively, of which Addresses copies are contained in the schedule to this Order annexed, Her Majesty was prayed, by and with the advice of Her Most Honourable Privy Council, under the one hundred and forty-sixth section of the hereinbefore recited Act, to admit British Columbia into the Dominion of Canada on the terms and conditions set forth in the said Addresses.

And whereas Her Majesty has thought fit to approve of the said terms and conditions, it is hereby ordered and declared by Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, in pursuance and exercise of the powers vested in Her Majesty by the said Act of Parliament, that from and after the twentieth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, the said Colony of British Columbia shall be admitted into and become part of the Dominion of Canada upon the terms and conditions set forth in the hereinbefore recited Addresses. And, in accordance with the terms of the said Addresses relating to the electoral districts in British Columbia, for which the first election of members to serve in the House of Commons of the said Dominion shall take place, it is hereby ordered and declared that such electoral districts shall be as follows:—

New Westminster District and the Coast District, as defined in a public notice issued from the Lands and Works Office in the said colony on the fifteenth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, by the desire of the Governor, and purporting to be in accordance with the provisions of the thirty-ninth clause of the Mineral Ordinance, 1868, shall constitute one District to be designated New Westminster District, and designate one member.

Cariboo District and Lillooet District, as specified in the said public notice, shall constitute one district, to be designated Cariboo District, and return one member.

Yale District and Kootenay District, as specified in the said public notice, shall constitute one district, to be designated Yale District, and return one member.

Those portions of Vancouver Island known as Victoria District, Esquimalt District and Metchosin District, as defined in the official maps of those districts, which are in the Land Office, Victoria, and are designated respectively Victoria District Official Map, 1858, Esquimalt District Official Map, 1858, and Metchosin District Official Map, 1858, shall constitute one district, to be designated Victoria District, and return two members.

All the remainder of Vancouver Island, and all such islands adjacent thereto, as were formerly dependencies of the late Colony of Vancouver Island District, shall constitute one district, to be designated Vancouver Island District, and return one member.

And the Right Honorable Earl of Kimberley, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

(Signed) ARTHUR HELPS.

The Constitution.

The following proclamation has been issued by His Excellency the Governor:

Whereas it is provided by the Constitution Act, 1871, that the said Act shall not come into operation until it has received Her Majesty's assent, nor until such assent has been proclaimed in this Colony by the Governor, nor until the expiration of such time as the Governor shall direct after such assent has been proclaimed as aforesaid, to be fixed by the Governor in such proclamation.

And whereas Her Majesty has been graciously pleased to give her assent to the said Act.

And whereas I, the said Anthony Musgrave, as said Governor as aforesaid, have fixed the 19th day of July next to be the date when the said Act shall come into operation and take effect.

Now, therefore, know ye that I, Anthony Musgrave, Governor of the Colony of British Columbia, do hereby proclaim the assent of Her Majesty to the Constitution Act, 1871, and do hereby proclaim and declare that the said Act shall take effect and come into operation in the said Colony of British Columbia on, from, and after the 19th day of July, in the present year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one.

Issued under the public seal of the Colony of British Columbia, at Victoria, this twenty-sixth day of June, in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, and in the thirty-fifth year of Her Majesty's reign.

By Command,

PHILIP J. HANKIN,
Colonial Secretary.

GOD SAVE THE QUEEN.

WELCOMED.—Governor Musgrave was welcomed right warmly at Seattle.

Order in Council.

BRITISH COLUMBIA. DOWNING STREET, No. 52. 27th May, 1871.

Sir,—With reference to my Dispatch No. 17, of the 11th of March, I have the honor to transmit to you an order of Her Majesty, in Council, dated the 16th of May, for uniting British Columbia to the Dominion of Canada, in accordance with the Addresses passed by the Legislatures of the two Colonies.

I caused the 20th of July to be fixed as the date of this Union, the day agreed upon between Lord Lisgar and yourself.

It gives me much satisfaction to express to you on this occasion how fully sensible Her Majesty's Government are of the energy, zeal, and ability with which you and the officers of your Government have labored to effect this Union, which it is confidently anticipated will confer important and lasting benefits upon British Columbia, and by the consolidation of Her Majesty's Possessions in North America will greatly promote their progress in the career of prosperity to which they seem destined by their natural resources.

I have, &c., KIMBERLEY.

(Signed) G. MUSGRAVE, &c., &c.

BARKER'S PANORAMA.—We had much pleasure last evening in again viewing Mr. Barker's Panorama, and no doubt many others were much gratified, for it is quite an intellectual treat and something that Victoria might well be proud of. The view in the Yosemita Valley is an exceedingly fine painted picture; the reflected lights in the valley from the opposite mountain are very good and perspective distance and the rendering of the waterfall exhibit much talent. The whole picture is really beautifully done. Mount Shasta is a well finished picture; the castle in the foreground are correctly drawn and very truthful to nature. The mountain in the distance has a very fine effect and is delightfully toned. Lake Tahoe is a moonlight scene. The rendering of the dark shadows of the mountain and the bright rays of light in the extreme distance produces a very striking effect; the light and shade in the trees form a good broad piece of painting. There is nothing pre-Raphaelite, but everything suggestive, which makes a charming picture of the whole scene. The view of Portland is well done. The river front with the shipping is charming and the reflections of the wharfs and the perspective of the river are highly artistic. That most difficult of all to effect—the hill at the back of the town—is kept in its proper position; the perspective of the town and the hill is a study. We would advise all endowed with a taste for the beautiful to avail themselves of the opportunity of seeing these fine pictures.

GOVERNMENT GAZETTE EXTRAORDINARY.—The Government Gazette Extraordinary appeared yesterday and contains a large amount of new matter, including the Order in Council for the admission of British Columbia into the Dominion; and the addresses of the Senate and Commons of Canada and of the Legislative Council of British Columbia upon the same important matter. The Queen's approval of the New Constitution Act and the Permanent Civil List Act are also announced. The Terms of Union are recited in each address, but their reproduction is unnecessary here. The address of the Privy Council, the Order in Council and the Governor's Proclamation announcing that the New Constitution shall have force and effect on and after the 19th of July, appear elsewhere in this issue.

SALT SPRING ISLAND IN BOXES.—Yesterday, in thanking the gifted Piper for the present of a box of Salt Spring Island strawberries, the printer omitted the strawberries and caused us to acknowledge the receipt of a box of "magnificent Salt Spring Island." Whether it was the berries or the bear that produced the error is a disputed point between the compositor and the editor—the former asserting that strawberries are intoxicating when swallowed with the box; and the editor maintaining that beer and strawberries are apt to produce temporary insanity in a printing office. Piper has our thanks for the berries notwithstanding their effect upon the types.

WHO HAS LOST CHICKENS?—Ah Hoop, a vagrant Chinaman, was detected by officer Ralfe a few mornings ago with a number of chickens in his possession, for whom owners are wanted at the Police Barracks. As for Ah Hoop he has been put where chickens won't bother him for the ensuing three months.

THE LECTURE.—In addition to his lecture on Irish Wit and Humor, this evening, Barney O'Regan will recite Shamus O'Brien, one of the best of Lover's pieces. We believe Shamus O'Brien has never been recited in this city and those who have not heard it (to use an Irishism) have had a lecturer like Mr Murphy have a rare treat in store.

MR. BARKER'S PANORAMA.—

MR. EDITOR.—Why don't Mr. Barker give a day exhibition, so that we children can see his Panorama? Don't you think it a shame that because we are little and ain't allowed to go out of doors after dark that we have got to miss everything that is interesting and beautiful? I am sure that if all work and no play makes Jack a dull boy that all school and no fun will make us dislike our lessons very much.

Please, Mr. Editor, put this in your paper and perhaps our parents and teachers will give it little once a show.

And oblige SEVERAL SCHOOLBOYS, June 28th, 1871.

OUR CORRESPONDENTS will turn to the advertisement they will see that Mr. Barker has anticipated their wish; and it only remains for them to mark their sense of the obligation conferred by turning out in strong force on Friday afternoon.—ED. COLONIST.

SPAIN.—The young King and Queen of Spain seem not unlikely to deserve to have the ancient style of the Spanish monarchy of their Most Catholic Majesties bestowed upon them. Their Ultramontane tendencies are giving serious offence to their subjects, who did not invite them to the throne in any such idea. The King has excommunicated the bishops who had refused to take the oath of allegiance to him to the tribunals for trial should be annullated. And the almoners of the palace, it is remarked, are the same as those of the time of Isabella.

IN THE RESTAURANTS in Germany one now meets with napkins made of silk paper, neatly ornamented in embossed figures, which answer an excellent purpose for wiping the mouth and fingers; and, although capable of use but once, are cheaper than the cost of washing linen napkins of the same size.

THE STAR ENTERPRISE sailed for New Westminster yesterday morning at 10 o'clock with about a dozen passengers, among whom we noticed Capt. Stamp, Messrs. T. Ladner, A. R. Robertson, Geo. Walker, F. Grelley and Lucas.

MATINÉE.—Barker's Panorama will be exhibited to-morrow afternoon at 3½ o'clock, when adults will be charged 50 cents and children 25 cents admission.

CORONATION DAY.—The flags on the public buildings were flying yesterday and the banks and principal business houses were closed in the afternoon.

THE TWENTIETH.—The Governor proclaims the 20th of July, the day appointed for the union of this colony with the Dominion of Canada, as a public holiday.

LET US have a holiday and general jollification on the 20th July. A committee of citizens ought to be formed to make the necessary arrangements.

THE ZEALUS is not expected to arrive before the 5th proximo, as she is coming up under sail.

THE ROADS throughout the interior have been much damaged, especially along the Thompson, by the late floods.

THE BONDS of the Central Pacific Railway are now selling at 103—a premium of 3 per cent.

A BARK was seen off the harbor yesterday morning, but it soon stood away for the Sound.

THE CALIFORNIA.—The sailing of this propeller from Portland is postponed until to-day.

THE ENTERPRISE will return on Saturday with Barnard's Cariboo Express.

THE CALIFORNIA from Portland will be due here on Friday.

THE RACE.—The North Pacific beat the Olympia four minutes to Port Townsend.

OUR CORRESPONDENTS will turn to the advertisement they will see that Mr. Barker has anticipated their wish; and it only remains for them to mark their sense of the obligation conferred by turning out in strong force on Friday afternoon.—ED. COLONIST.

HINTS TO FARMERS.

PIOGUE NO watered land. Many a field of heavy soil is damaged for the whole season by being ploughed before the water is out of it, and the labor of subsequent tillage is greatly increased.

COLEMAN'S RURAL WORLD has found common salt at the rate of a bushel and a quarter, if distributed evenly over every quarter of an acre, an efficacious remedy for the strawberry grub. It says the plants were not injured.

A CORRESPONDENT of the RURAL NEW YORKER recommends her tin pans with putty. She says it is very easily done and is much better than to throw them away. Put the putty on the outside, let it thoroughly dry and they will never require to be mended in that place again.

THE CONTRY GENTLEMAN says:

1 Instead of trimming up trees, according to the old fashion, to make them long and long arched, trim them down so as to make them snug and symmetrical.

2 Instead of mowing heavily in a small circle at the foot of the tree, spread the mown, if needed at all, broadcast over the whole surface.

3 Instead of spading a small circle about the stem cultivate the whole surface broadcast.

4 Prefer a well pulverized clean surface in an orchard with moderately rich soil to heavy manuring and a surface covered with hard crust and weeds or grass.

5 Remember that it is better to set out ten trees with all the necessary care to make them live and flourish, than to set out a hundred trees and have them all die from carelessness.

6 Remember that tobacco is a poison and will kill insects rapidly if properly applied to them, and is one of the best drugs for freeing fruit trees of small vermin—and is better used in this way than to make men explosive and diseased.

MR. WALCOTT, prominent New York breeder of cattle, maintains that breeding from young stock is a prolific source of abortion in cows, and that a yearling bull is unfit for breeding and should be discarded altogether.

All salted provisions should be watched and seen to that they are kept under the brine, for if one piece of meat lies up it will spoil the whole barrel. If the brine appears bloody it must be scalded and more salt added, and when cold pour back.

THE CROWN POINT.—Among the fortunate speculators in Crown Point was C. C. Pennington, Esq., formerly of this city and now Wells Fargo's agent at Virginia City. That gentleman cleared $40,000 in a few days.

FELIX O'BRYNE died at New York in March last. He left several Mrs. O'Brynes to advise over his early departure and the close of his villainous career.

OMINECA.—A letter from Omineca received yesterday states that one miner on Germanas Creek made $6000 early in the Spring, and another upwards of $1000. The reports generally are tip-top.

THE CARIBOO mail reached here yesterday per canoe from New Westminster. Barnard's Express of the same date arrived last Saturday evening.

SPECIAL TO THE DAILY BRITISH COLONIST.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

Oregon.

PORTLAND, June 28.—A dispatch from Horace Greeley declining to give the address at State Fair this year has been received.

The steamers John L. Stephens and Constantine left for San Francisco early this morning.

The sailing of propeller California has been postponed till to-morrow.

Arrived—Bar Edward James from Hong Kong.

The Wright is advertised to sail for Sitka on Saturday, July 1st, and the Oriflamme on Wednesday July 5th, for San Francisco.

The contract for grading the first 20 miles of the Oregon Central Railroad, on the west side, has been let to Messrs. M. Short & Co.

Business is brisk and building is going on in many parts of the city.

The river has been steadily going down for some days, and is now three feet below the highest point reached last week.

Weather—Clear and hot.

California.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 27.—The new affidavits presented by Mrs. Fair's counsel, to-day, cover essentially the same ground as those already passed upon, mainly attacking the competency of the jurors Beach and Little.

A number of emigrants to the Lower California Co's Colony at Magdalena Bay, arrived here yesterday in a destitute condition. Nearly all of them have been provided with employment by the Labor Exchange. Some will be sent to the Mission River Lumber Mills, and others to various parts of the State.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 28.—Weather—Warm and fine.

Henry Weimer, who was shot at Christening by Thos Farren on Sunday, died at 4 a. m. to-day. His dying declaration was taken by Coroner Letterman in presence of Farren.

Last night Capt. George S. Porter, who has been a resident of San Francisco since 1849, and formerly Port Warden, died at Alameda.

The rumor that the Hall & Norton mine will to-morrow levy assessments of $10 per share, has a depressing effect on the stocks generally, and the feeling on the streets is not one of confidence in primary and present values.

Complaint has been made that the game law is constantly violated, and that quail are being killed and brought into the city by pot hunters every day.

Dr. Rogers, who was severely injured by being thrown from a buggy when going to the aid of Dr. Boston who shot himself, is reported better, and is likely to recover.

Dentistry.

A CARD.

D. MILLS BOWDEN.—THROUGH THE medium of the Colonist I want to state the very great good that has been done by you. One year ago I was unfortunate enough to lose my palate. I tried many persons without beneficial effect, until I went to you, when I was supplied with an artificial palate which has given entire satisfaction. I recommend any person similarly afflicted, or requiring anything in the Dental line, to call upon you. Respectfully,

C. HERBER.
